BEN URI ART SOCIETY

The Ben Uri Art Society was founded in 1915, with the object of acquiring by purchase, gift and bequest, a permanent and representative collection of paintings, sculpture and drawings by Jewish artists, irrespective of style or period.

Activities include the arranging of exhibitions of special interest, lectures, cultural and artistic gatherings, concerts and recitals, etc.

The Studio Group, organised by and for the younger members of the Society, includes among its activities a Sketch Circle, a Chamber Music Group. an Orchestral Class, and a Drama Section.

The Gallery serves as a centre where artists, musicians and writers, and others who have a true interest in the cultural life of the community can meet.

The Ben Uri Art Gallery is dependent on private and voluntary support for its maintenance. All in sympathy with its work are invited to become members.

The annual subscription is:

Full membership ...	...	£2	2	0
Associate membership	...	£1	1	0
Artist membership	...		10	6
Student membership	...		5	0

Further details may be obtained from the Secretary.
